

2011-12 NOMINATION FORM

DOUGLAS O. BARBER AWARD

The Douglas O. Barber Award was established in 1998 by District Governor William P. McLemore (1998-99). His purpose in establishing the award was to recognize Rotarians or Rotary Clubs in District 6880 who serve the district with the philosophy and spirit of unselfish volunteer service. Governor Bill named the award for Past District Governor Doug Barber (1996-97), a member of the Rotary Club of Foley, whose life characterized this generous spirit.

The Douglas O. Barber Award is recognized as the second highest honor conveyed by District 6880.
